WORKERS DAY: HANDS THAT SHAPE TOMORROW

We celebrate stories like Kelly, where passion meets purpose and education opens doors. Her journey into Real Estate is one of courage, mentorship, and transformation.

*“Real estate is not just about buying and selling, it’s about helping people make some of the most important decisions of their lives.”- Kelly Richter

Unlocking Potential: A Real Estate Journey with Khanyisela College

At Khanyisela College, we believe education is more than just acquiring knowledge — it's about unlocking potential, building confidence, and inspiring purpose. One of our recent real estate graduates embodies this vision perfectly, showing just how transformative the right opportunity and support can be.

From early on, she had a deep-rooted interest in property and how real estate influences people's lives and communities. But for her, real estate was never just about the transactions. It was about the people. She wanted to guide individuals through life-changing decisions, helping them find spaces that truly felt like home or places that helped their businesses thrive.

Her decision to pursue a formal qualification with Khanyisela College was driven by a desire to build credibility and gain the tools needed to succeed. As she immersed herself in her studies, she also found something just as valuable — mentorship. Tanya, one of our dedicated educators, played a key role in her journey. Through encouragement, honest feedback, and unwavering support, Tanya helped her see her own potential and empowered her to keep pushing forward — even when the road got tough.

The screenshot shows the Khanyisela College website interface. At the top, there is a navigation bar with the college logo and links for HOME, TOMORROW'S LEADERS, UPCOMING CLASSES, COURSES, and COMMUNICATION. The main heading is 'Further Education and Training Certificate: Real Estate'. Below this, there is a 'Program Description' section with a small text block. A prominent orange button labeled 'View Course' is visible at the bottom of the page.

Today, she stands not only as a qualified professional but as a confident, driven individual ready to take on the world of real estate. Her short-term focus is to build a strong network and deliver excellent service, while her long-term vision is to specialize in areas like luxury or commercial real estate. With a commitment to lifelong learning and growth, she's well on her way to becoming a leader in the field.

Stories like hers remind us why we do what we do. At Khanyisela College, we're not just teaching skills — we're shaping futures. We've seen firsthand how education can spark transformation, especially when paired with the right guidance and encouragement.

Her journey has also shifted her perspective on what's possible. Through her studies, she learned that perseverance, planning, and asking for help are all part of success. She's discovered strength she didn't know she had — and that's exactly the kind of transformation we hope to inspire in every student who walks through our doors.

To anyone unsure about taking the next step in their education or career, her message is simple but powerful: "Start. Even if you're scared or uncertain. You don't need all the answers — just the courage to begin."

At Khanyisela College, we'll be right here to walk that journey with you.

What happened at KC?

At Khanyisela College, we're building futures—one learner at a time. Our Save Our Youth campaign is off to a great start, with generous individuals and businesses already stepping up to sponsor young people aged 18–28 on their journey toward accredited qualifications and employment.

For just R500, you can join this growing community of changemakers by helping a learner access education that can change their life. Every contribution goes directly toward training costs, making it possible for youth to gain the skills they need to become employable and independent.

We've already seen the impact and we're just getting started. Let's keep the momentum going and give even more young people a real shot at a brighter future.

Shaping Inclusive Pathways to the Future

This year's Career Guidance Workshop focused on exposing learners to a range of career paths and post-school opportunities. We were especially proud to include visually impaired learners from Nelson Mandela Bay in this experience, connecting them with professionals during the exhibition on Saturday, 10 May 2025. Our hope is that future career expos in the metro become more inclusive, and we aim to support organisers in creating spaces where every learner can fully participate.

As part of this commitment, our Marketing and Training Supervisors visited Khanyisa School for the Blind, where they introduced learners to various educational and training opportunities.

The visit was filled with meaningful engagement and inspiration. One learner shared, "It makes a big difference to know that people believe we can do anything, we just do it differently." Moments like these highlight the importance of accessible learning and the value of inclusion in education.

This collaboration is just the beginning. We believe partnerships like these can pave the way for more inclusive, empowering experiences, giving every learner, regardless of ability, the chance to dream big and pursue their future with confidence.

Tomorrow's Leaders

Thank you, Arcadia High School!

We extend our deepest thanks to Arcadia High School for being an outstanding host company for the Tomorrow's Leaders programme. Your incredible support, flexibility, and commitment to youth development did not go unnoticed.

Arcadia High School generously took more learners than originally planned, providing them with a welcoming, engaging, and inspiring environment. Your team went above and beyond to ensure our learners felt supported and valued throughout their experience.

Thank you for helping us shape the leaders of tomorrow, we are truly grateful for your partnership.

Learner of The Month

Kyle Snyman, EUC Learner

Well done to Kyle Snyman for showing great dedication and enthusiasm in the EUC class. Your effort and consistency truly stand out. Keep shining!

Tomorrow's Leaders

Mentors

We're excited to announce that our Standard Bank mentors and mentees will be coming together in June for a dedicated mentorship session under the Tomorrow's Leaders initiative. This powerful programme is designed to inspire growth, leadership, and real-world readiness among our young visionaries.

The upcoming session will create space for meaningful conversations, guidance, and shared experiences that will shape future leaders. We can't wait to see the impact of these connections as our learners continue to grow, learn, and lead with purpose!

Wors Roll Day

On the significant date of May 16, we were delighted to host an exceptional Wors Roll Day, successfully raising essential funds to bolster our Tomorrow's Leaders program. With sincere gratitude, we acknowledge the extraordinary support that allowed us to surpass our fundraising objectives, kindling an unwavering aspiration for further achievements. In view of this splendid turnout, we are pleased to announce a series of forthcoming fundraising events. We anticipate future occasions filled with delectable fare, vibrant enthusiasm, and an even more substantial impact.

Learner of The Month

Adrian Finnis, EUC Learner

A big shout-out to Adrian Finnis for showing incredible growth and dedication in EUC. Your focus and drive to improve each week have not gone unnoticed. We're proud to celebrate your progress and can't wait to see what you achieve next!

Tomorrow's Leaders Road Show

On February 19, we had the opportunity to take our roadshow to Chetty Hall, where we connected with over 45 students, many of whom showed great interest in our Tomorrow's Leaders program. It was inspiring to see such enthusiasm from the students, and we are excited about the potential impact this initiative can have on their futures.

During our visit, we also had the pleasure of meeting the coordinator of Ikhemendo! My Awek, who generously offered his support and expressed interest in collaborating on future projects. His willingness to assist and work alongside us is truly appreciated, and we look forward to building a strong partnership.
